Notepad Replacer is an easy-to-use tool that does just what its name says: it replaces Notepad with whichever alternative application you find more appealing. Using this app cannot get any easier since it is designed in a wizard style that is only made up of 3 windows. The first window lets you browse the location of the program you want to use instead of Notepad. The next window work in conjunction with that program's setup process, proceeding to install it on your PC, and the final window is nothing more than a confirmation window. The Notepad Replacer allows you to replace your boring, featureless Notepad app with something better, like Notepad++ or Notepad2. Change the location of the Notepad file The program is easy to navigate and its three different window stages help the user navigate smoothly without any issues. It does not have any unnecessary frills like toolbars, panels or menus. You can browse, install and use your chosen alternative with ease. Like it? Share with your friends! Other

Find similar items about Notepad Replacer software (click on icons) Good product ratings I was looking for a compact text editor to remove the bulk of its features from Notepad++ for personal use. I was pleasantly surprised. It removes all of the nags that you deal with when using Notepad++ and everything is included in the program. I like the program, it is easy to use and allows you to access all of the programs features without additional fees.

Highfive is so simple that setting up every meeting room takes just minutes and every employee will be able to start or join a call from any room with ease. Never be called into a meeting just to get it started again. This is how video conferencing should work! Great tool! It is very simple and easy to use. I quickly installed it and now i'm pretty satisfied. I can install a program without any problems, and i'm sure that i'll find the solution for every problem. It was easy to install and use. I especially like that it installs both programs in a single installation, allowing me to easily get to work. On a side note, the site is nice and has a clean, professional look that I like. One of the best programs i have used so far, you just need the permissions and you can't ask for more.
