The Collective Intelligence System (C.I.S.) is a complete re-platform of the algorithms from FIFA 15. New to FIFA's Lead AI developer, Valerio Giovetta has focused his efforts into making better decisions for both the AI Characters and the live players. This improved AI reasoning allows the player to become more comfortable on the ball and perform at a higher level. Along with these major improvements, every player is represented by a unique 3D model, used to boost gameplay and give the player greater visual customization. The all-new Player Character Editor allows players to instantly see multiple animations available to the player, including movement and the multiple face- and head-to-head animations. The new features and improvements are now available to the community via downloadable content that adds new teams, stadiums, and new card packs to FIFA Ultimate Team. Also, the Ultimate Team community manager has created an updated in-game store menu for easier user access to the new content. Further development for FIFA Ultimate Team continues, with the player icons in Ultimate Team being upgraded to the new 3D appearance. FIFA 22 is available for all platforms – Xbox One, PlayStation®4, PC, Nintendo Switch and mobile.
